

INSTRUCTIONS FOR JOINT PETITION FOR DIVORCE – NO CHILDREN

 IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE *****

THIS PACKET IS IN NO WAY INTENDED TO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE ADVICE OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY

Private Counsel Is Always Recommended For Legal Matters

The law allows any person to represent themselves in a legal action. However, filing an action with the court and representing yourself in the courtroom can be a complicated legal procedure and this packet does not attempt to address all the legal issues involved in bringing your matter before the court. This packet is created to help you access the legal system without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Nevada District Courts, and the local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents. (ie. First Judicial District Court Rules)

When you sign these documents and present them for filing with the court, it is assumed by the court that you have carefully read the documents, that you understand all the terms in the documents, that you agree with all the provisions in the documents, and that you are aware of all the consequences those provisions may produce.

Before filling in any portion of the following documents, read all the materials included in this packet including the definitions of terms.

THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A COURTESY ONLY. THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, AND THEIR EMPLOYEES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS CONTAINED HEREIN OR FOR DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FURNISHING OF THIS MATERIAL.

I. EXPLANATION OF JOINT PETITION FOR DIVORCE

- A. A case for divorce can be started in two ways: (1) by filing a Complaint for Divorce or (2) by filing a Joint Petition for Divorce.

In a joint petition, both parties must agree on everything about the divorce and be willing to sign documents. There is no hearing in a joint petition for divorce proceeding.

- B. You can use a Joint Petition for Divorce if:

- At least one party has lived in the State of Nevada, for at least six weeks before you file the Joint Petition and that party plans to live in the State of Nevada, for the foreseeable future after the Petition is filed.
- You and your spouse are "incompatible" in marriage (You can no longer live together as husband and wife.)
- You and the other party do not have children together.
- Both parties agree to everything that will be in the divorce papers, including spousal support (alimony) and division of property and debts.
- Both parties are willing to sign the divorce papers.

- C. This package should contain the following documents:

- Instructions for Joint Petition Divorce – No Children
- List of definitions and explanations of terms
- Civil (Family-Related) Cover Sheet

- Joint Petition for Summary Decree of Divorce
- Affidavit of Resident Witness
- Request for Submission
- Decree of Divorce
- Certificate of Mailing
- Affirmation

II. STEP 1: PREPARE YOUR PAPERWORK

NOTE: WHEN FILLING OUT ANY FORM, YOU MUST USE BLUE INK. PRINT CLEARLY. THE CLERK'S OFFICE WILL NOT FILE YOUR DOCUMENT IF THE HANDWRITING IS HARD TO READ.

NOTE: The documents in this package are written as if you are a Nevada resident. If you are not a Nevada resident but your spouse is a Nevada resident, you can still use these forms. You will insert your spouse's name where the documents ask for information about the Nevada resident.

A. THE CIVIL (FAMILY-RELATED) COVER SHEET:

1. The Civil (Family-Related) Cover Sheet is a document used by the Clerk's Office to create a file for your case.
2. Complete the front side of the sheet.
 - a. Leave the "Case No." blank. The Clerk's Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the petition.
 - b. Print name and addresses.
 - c. Check the box next to the type of case you will be filing.
 - d. Date and sign your name.

B. THE CAPTION:

1. The "caption" is the portion of your document which assists the Court in identifying your particular case. It is the part of the page that says "In the First Judicial District" and "In the Matter of the Marriage of ____." Generally, this caption will remain the same throughout the entire case and will be on every document filed in this action.
2. In this package, the caption is on the: (a) Joint Petition, (b) Affidavit of Resident Witness, (c) Request for Submission, (d) Decree of Divorce, (e) Certificate of Mailing, (f) Affirmation.

C. THE JOINT PETITION:

1. Complete the information requested on the lines in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. Please include area codes.
2. Insert the wife's and husband's names on the lines above those words in the caption.
3. Leave the lines to the right of the caption blank. The Clerk's Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the Joint Petition. Once you get the case number from the clerk, you will need to put it on any documents that you give to the Court.
4. The Joint Petition uses a fill-in-the-blank format and will tell you what information you need to put into the blanks (date of marriage, etc.) Please be sure to initial any applicable blanks.

5. The Joint Petition must be “verified.” In other words, you and your spouse will need to sign the Joint Petition in front of a Notary Public. The Joint Petition will also have to be “acknowledged” by the Notary. The Notary will know what to do. Do not make any copies until the document is notarized. Once notarized staple the Joint Petition packet together.

D. THE AFFIDAVIT OF RESIDENT WITNESS:

NOTE: PART OF THIS DOCUMENT WILL NEED TO BE COMPLETED BY SOMEONE ELSE.

1. A resident witness is someone other than you or the other party who can testify that he/she has seen either you or your spouse (whoever is listed as the Nevada resident in the Joint Petition) in the State of Nevada, several times per week for at least six weeks before the Joint Petition is filed. This person must also have lived in the State of Nevada at least six weeks before the Joint Petition is filed.
2. Complete the information requested on the lines in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. Please include area codes.
3. Insert the wife’s and husband’s names on the lines above those words in the caption.
4. Leave the lines to the right of the caption blank. The Clerk’s Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the Joint Petition. Once you get the case number from the clerk, you will need to put it on any documents that you give to the Court.
5. The Affidavit of Resident Witness uses a fill-in-the-blank format and will tell you what information you need to put into the blanks.
6. The Affidavit of Resident Witness must be signed in front of a Notary Public and must not pre-date the filing of the Joint Petition. Do not make any copies until the document is notarized. Once notarized staple the Affidavit of Resident Witness packet together.

E. THE REQUEST FOR SUBMISSION:

1. Complete the information requested on the lines in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. Please include area codes.
2. Insert the wife’s and husband’s names on the lines above those words in the caption.
3. Leave the lines to the right of the caption blank. The Clerk’s Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the Joint Petition. Once you get the case number from the clerk, you will need to put it on any documents that you give to the Court.
4. The Request for Submission uses a fill-in-the-blank format and will tell you what information you need to put into the blanks.

F. THE DECREE OF DIVORCE:

1. The Decree of Divorce is the document the judge signs that grants the divorce. You are not divorced until the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the judge and filed at the Clerk’s Office.
2. Complete the information requested on the lines in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. Please include area codes.
3. Insert the wife’s and husband’s names on the lines above those words in the caption.

4. Leave the lines to the right of the caption blank. The Clerk's Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the Joint Petition. Once you get the case number form the Clerk, you will need to put it on any documents that you give to the Court.
5. The Decree of Divorce uses a fill-in-the-blank format and will tell you what information you need to put into the blanks. Please be sure to initial the applicable lines. Staple the Decree of Divorce packet together.

G. THE CERTIFICATE OF MAILING:

NOTE: YOU SHOULD PREPARE THIS DOCUMENT AFTER THE JUDGE HAS SIGNED YOUR DECREE.

1. The Certificate of Mailing is a document to show the Court that the other party received a copy of the document you filed.
2. Insert your name, address, and phone number on the first page, upper left-hand corner.
3. Insert the wife's and husband's names on the lines above those words in the caption.
4. Insert the case number and department number on the line after the words "Case No." and "Dept. No." on your documents. You can find the case number and department number by looking at the other documents that have been filed in your case.
5. The Certificate of Mailing uses a fill-in-the-blank format and will tell you what information you need to put into the blanks.
 - a. Whomever mails the documents will need to fill in the date that he/she mailed the documents to the other party.

H. THE AFFIRMATION:

1. Beginning January 1, 2007, most documents should not contain parties' Social Security Numbers. If certain documents are required to have this information, the Clerk's Office and/or the Court must take steps to ensure that the information is kept in a confidential manner. The Affirmation lets the Clerk's Office and the Court know whether the documents you file contain Social Security Numbers.
2. Insert your name, address, and phone number on the first page, upper left-hand corner. The form uses a "fill-in-the-blank" format. Write the information requested on each line in the caption.
3. Leave the lines to the right of the caption blank. The Clerk's Office will give you a case number and department number when you file the Joint Petition. Once you get the case number form the clerk, you will need to put it on any documents that you give to the Court.
4. Sign and date the form.

III STEP 2: FILE THE CIVIL (FAMILY RELATED) COVERSHEET, JOINT PETITION FOR DIVORCE, AFFIDAVIT OF RESIDENT WITNESS, REQUEST FOR SUBMISSION, AND THE AFFIRMATION.

- A. Make copies of the following documents:

Two copies of the Decree of Divorce and the Joint Petition

- B. Take all of the completed documents and money to pay the filing fee with you to the Clerk's Office (located on the third floor of the courthouse.) For the list of filing fees you can call the Clerk's Office at 887-2082 or visit our website at www.carson-city.nv.us.

- C. Go to the filing counter at the Clerk's Office. The clerk will file the original Civil (Family Related) Coversheet, Joint Petition, Affidavit of Resident Witness, Request for Submission and the Affirmation. He/she will stamp your copies and return them to you. These are called "file-stamped" copies. The Clerk will also stamp "received" on the original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce. The Clerk will also assign your case to a judge (also known as a "department") and give your case a "case number."

IV. STEP 3: THE COURT'S REVIEW OF THE PAPERWORK

- A. The judge's staff will review your paperwork. If it is approved, the judge will sign the Decree. If you need to make some corrections, the staff will put a note on your papers to tell you how to correct your papers. It usually takes between one to two weeks from the time that you give your papers to the department until the staff has reviewed them.
- B. If the judge signed your Decree of Divorce, the Clerk's Office will automatically file the Decree. Once the file stamp from the Clerk's Office is on your Decree, you are divorced. If your paperwork needs correction, you will need to follow the instructions from the judge's office, complete and file the new document.

V. STEP 4: SERVE THE DECREE ON THE OPPOSING PARTY

- A. As a general rule, you must give the other party a copy of any document that you file with the Court. If that party is represented by an attorney, you must give the documents to the attorney instead of the other party. The way of giving the documents to the other party (or the attorney) is called "service of process" or "service." For this packet, you must serve the Decree of Divorce on the other party.
 - 1. Any document that is "served" must be mailed or delivered by someone who is not related to you by blood or marriage and who is over 18 years old. This person is called a "third party".
- B. There are several ways of serving the other party. However, this packet contains a "Certificate of Mailing." This is the most common method of serving a Decree of Divorce.
 - 1. If the other party does not have an attorney, the third party should mail the documents to the other side's last known address (the address you put in the Certificate of Mailing.)
 - 2. If the other party has an attorney, the third party should mail the documents to the attorney at the attorney's business.

VI. STEP 5: FILE THE CERTIFICATE OF MAILING

- A. After the third party has mailed the Decree of Divorce to the other side (or that side's attorney) he/she should complete their portion of the Certificate of Mailing.
- B. Go to the filing counter at the Clerk's Office. The Clerk will file the original document.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS OF TERMS

The following definitions and explanations are only to be used as general guidance. In no way are they intended to cover all the legal significance and importance of the terms. You are advised to seek a full explanation of the terms, definitions, and explanations, from a private attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada.

Alimony or Spousal Support: Alimony, or Spousal Support is the amount paid to one spouse by the other for a period of time after the marriage is over, usually to assist the spouse in being able to maintain a lifestyle to which that spouse is accustomed, until that spouse can get back on firm financial footing. Spousal support may be for a limited amount of time, such as months or years, or may be permanent such as for a lifetime or until remarriage, whichever occurs first. If the spouse that is receiving support remarries, unless otherwise agreed upon, the spousal support stops. There is no formula for spousal support and either party may receive spousal support. The factors governing spousal support are complicated and if you have any questions regarding spousal support, they should be discussed with a private attorney.

Assets: Generally, anything acquired or purchased during the time of the marriage is considered a community asset and, therefore, community property, and it usually does not matter if one name is on the property or both names are on the property. Nevada is a community property State and the law in Nevada is that community assets are equally divided at the time of a divorce. There are some exceptions, and those should be discussed with a private attorney. The term "community assets" includes: the income of both parties during the marriage and anything purchased with either income, any interest acquired in real property, any retirement funds earned during the marriage, vehicles purchased during the marriage (even if in only one name), furniture purchased during the marriage, etc. In many cases, it does not matter in whose name these things are purchased. Sole and separate property is not usually considered community property unless it was given as a gift to the community or the community has acquired an interest in it in another way. If one party wastes community assets or give community assets away without the other party's knowledge or consent, that party may have to reimburse the community for the wasting of assets. If there is a question of wasted assets, those should be discussed with a private attorney.

Community Property: Any assets acquired or purchased during the marriage are usually considered "community property" no matter whose name they are in. That is the starting point for the division of property of the marriage. Nevada is a community property State and it is the law that the division of community property start with an equal division. However, there are important deviations and exceptions to equal community property distribution. See "Assets" above. A private attorney should be consulted regarding division and distribution of community property.

Debts: Generally, any bills or debts acquired during the marriage are considered community debts and are equally divided at the time of the divorce. There are exceptions. Debts that are incurred for such things as gambling or for purchasing things that are not for the benefit of the community, may be considered sole and separate debts. Such debts should be discussed with a private attorney.

Petitioner: A party that starts or "brings" an action against another party. Also known as the Plaintiff, depending upon what kind of an action is filed. If the action is a Joint Petition, such as a Joint Petition for Divorce or a Joint Petition to Establish Custody and Visitation, both parties are called "petitioners," rather than Plaintiff and Defendant.

Residency Requirement: One of the "Petitioners" must be a resident of the State of Nevada and that person is known as the "resident petitioner". In order to establish residency in the State of Nevada, that person must have physically lived and physically been here in the State for at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to filing the Joint Petition. If both people are residents of the State of Nevada, only one is actually designated as the "resident petitioner" for purposes of the filling out and filing of the Affidavit of Resident Witness Form.

Resident Petitioner: The Petitioner, or party, on whose behalf the Affidavit of Resident Witness is going to be filed. If both Petitioners are residents, only one will be the "Resident Petitioner."

Resident Witness: A person that will swear in the Affidavit of Resident Witness that one of the Petitioners has been physically present in the State of Nevada for a period of at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Joint Petition. The Resident Witness may be a friend, a family member or a co-employee.

Sole and Separate Property: Sole and separate property are those things Husband and Wife owned prior to the marriage, and it may also include a personal injury settlement received during the marriage by one of the parties, if the proceeds were kept entirely separate from the community. Sole and separate property remains the property of the individual who owned it prior to the marriage. There are exceptions, such as a home or other real property. The "community" may acquire an interest in a home or real property during the time of the marriage even if it belonged to one party prior to the marriage. If there is a question regarding such an interest, and what percentage the community may have acquired, you are urged to see a private attorney.

IX.

Petitioners hereby request that this Court enter a Decree of Divorce incorporating into that Decree the provisions made herein.

X.

It is understood by the Petitioners that entry of Decree of Divorce constitutes a final adjudication of the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the status of the marriage.

Petitioners each expressly give up their respective rights to receive written Notice of Entry of any Decree and Judgment of Divorce and Petitioners give up their right to request a formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, or to appeal any Judgment or Order of this Court made and entered in these proceedings or the right to move for a new trial.

XI.

It is further understood by the Petitioners that a final Decree of Divorce entered by this summary procedure does not prejudice or prevent the rights of either Petitioner to bring an action to set aside the final decree for fraud, duress, accident, mistake or the grounds recognized at law or in equity.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners pray as follows:

- 1. That the parties be granted a decree of divorce and that each of the petitioners be restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.
- 2. That the terms agreed upon in this Joint Petition be included in the Decree.
