

IN THE JUSTICE COURT OF VIRGINIA TOWNSHIP IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF STOREY STATE OF NEVADA

ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS
GROSS MISDEMEANOR/FELONY

Name: _____ Case No. _____

YOU, AS A DEFENDANT, ARE INFORMED OF THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES GRANTED TO YOU UNDER THE LAWS AND CONSTITUTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE STATE OF NEVADA.

1. You, as a defendant, are charged with a violation of criminal law, and the primary purpose of this hearing is to ensure that you know and understand the charges that are alleged against you.
2. At this hearing, there will be no determination made about your guilt or innocence of the alleged violation, but only that you know and understand the charge(s) against you.
3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney in these proceedings. You have a right to have your own attorney. If you cannot afford to hire an attorney, one will be appointed for you if you qualify for such representation.
4. You have the right to talk with your attorney and, if necessary, reasonable means will be provided in order to enable you to do so.
5. You are entitled to a preliminary hearing within 15 days before a judge to determine whether the prosecution has sufficient evidence to establish that you probably committed the crime(s) with which you are charged. Or, in the alternative, you may waive, that is give up, your right to such a preliminary hearing.
6. If, at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the judge finds that sufficient evidence has been shown to establish that a crime has been committed and you could be the person who committed the crime(s) charged, the judge will hold you to answer those charges in District Court.
7. If, on the other hand, the judge finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that you probably committed the crime(s) charged, then you will be discharged from further custody or pretrial.
8. You have the constitutional right to remain silent, and you are reminded that anything you say may be used against you in a subsequent hearing or proceeding.

I HAVE READ MY RIGHTS, HEARD THEM EXPLAINED BY THE JUDGE, AND FULLY UNDERSTAND THEM.
