Residential rescue effort is occurring north of Virginia City.

Notice is issued to move parked vehicles from Summit, Howard, A, B, C and D Streets to allow snow removal. Parking available at Bucket of Blood parking lot at the corner of C and Union (next to Grandma's Fudge), Delta Parking lot downtown and at the corner of Mill and D Street. Vehicles will be towed from streets at owners' expense. Owner cooperation is much appreciated. Thank you Bucket of Blood and Delta Saloon for providing parking.

NDF, National Guard and county crews continue removing snow in Virginia City and the Highlands, including local Highlands roads. Check out the video posted on Facebook from the Nevada National Guard, <https://www.facebook.com/StoreyCounty/posts/10154959289253293>

More snow and possible flooding are coming next week. Residents are urged to be prepared as area resources are limited and becoming exhausted.

- Stock wood, water and food
- Clear propane tank regulators
- Keep sandbags in place
- Prevent water pipe breaks
- Prepare for possible shelter-in-place, if needed

The Emergency Coordinating Center remains on full-active status until otherwise determined.
